Anthony Jordan and Henry Rothblatt, newsboys, will appear before the court this (Monday) morning to answer to charges of trespassing on railroad property. Several days ago H. A. Blanchett agent at the local railroad station, sent a complaint to Chief of Police Daniel J. Killourey about the habit the newsboys of the city in making a nuisance of themselves around the station. They had alse made a habit of entering the various trains as they pulled into the station, and bothering the passengers. Mr. Blanchett requested that the local police aid the railroad company in stopping this nuisance. Sunday morning about 10 o'clock, Constable Thomas H. Killourey caught the two lads as H. ANNOUNCEMENTS

TUESDAY AT LEBANON Tuesday is the first of four days given to this year's extension school at Lebanon, and the program for this opening day is certainly one of the best in the entire session.

opening day is certainly one of the best in the entire session.

The Agricultural section of the program includes talks on "Better Cows" at 1 a. m. and "More Hay at Less Cost," at :15 p. m., while the corresponding hours in the home section are devoted to "The Home and Community," and the "Art of Home Making." These are subjects that touch every one of us.

But the best features of Tuesday's program are contained in the three joint sessions of afternoon and evening. At 2:10 Dr. Campbell will speak on "Health in the Home" while at 3:10 Dr. Wilson of Teachers College, Columbia University will discuss "The Country Community." These subjects are full of importance to our community life, and will be handled as only these meh can handle them. an handle them.

Will Talk on Tax Valuations, A large attendance is expected time (Monday) evening at the monthly meeting and supper of the Brotherheod of the United Congregational church where Lewis R. Church is to give a talk on Tax Valuation in Norwich.

DAVIS THEATRE

A favorite with two generations as a novel, "Told in the Hills," has been adapted to the screen and will be the special attraction at the Day's the-atre today and Tuesday as a six part Paramount-Arteraft production with Major Robert Warwick as the star. No effort has been spared to make it as picture of unusual merit. In the supporting cast are Ann L'ttle Elleen Percy, Wanda Hawley, Tom Forman, Ford Sterling, one of the funniest of funnakers, is the chief comedian in "His Last Falso Step," a new Mack Schnett comedy, which will complete the show. Beauty, fun and excitement and everything that conspires to entertain are included in this compety.

BREED THEATRE

Gripping situations and scenes, masterini dramatic effects and an alistar dast—these are the attributes that will go to make "Paid in Alvance," the new Universal super-production to be shown at the Breed today and Tuesday, a picture that will remain in the memory of every motion picture. The locale of the story is the Canad an Novithwest, heart of the fur country, and Dawson "City Klondike, in the surring days during the gold rush to the Yukon region. James Oliver Curwood, an eminent writer of novels and magazine stories wrote the tale that inspired Allen J. Holubar, director of the production, to transpose it from the printed page to the screen.
